- Do Faraday bags work for key fobs?
- A Faraday bag will protect your keyless entry fob from being hacked and used to start your car without you knowing. Faraday sleeves protect valuable devices from electronic pickpockets and vehicles from electronic car thieves
- Remember: Advise to the Wise – “A Tracker installed in the motor vehicle help to locate and recover the vehicle”.
- How do police track stolen cars?
- When a vehicle is stolen the Tracker device emits a unique Very High Frequency signal. This can be picked by the police using the Tracker technology installed in their vehicles to help track stolen vehicles. A tracker was installed in the motor vehicle and the owners of the car were able to locate & recover. (Tracker™ Vehicle Tracking Systems Utilise VHF Tracking To Help Locate Your Stolen Vehicle)
