PC Connor Salter's hard work paid dividends with two arrests in as many days; one was Failure to Appear and the other Possession with Intent to Supply Class B Drugs. Good work Connor.

Not to be outdone, PC Strickland's dedication and perseverance yielded a Dangerous Dogs charge against a local owner who was allowing their XL Bully off the lead which ended in vicious attacks of numerous members of the public. Good work Ben.

Following on from the Nunhead Cycle Marking Day; PCSOs Broughton-Rates and Smyth aided PCSO Perduto (of Nunhead and Queen's Road SNT) in Community Outreach at Nunhead Big Lunch. They spoke to revelers, enjoyed the choir and were offered delicious food but unfortunately had already eaten. Bad planning gents.

Finally for this month; PCSO Broughton-Rates continued his Peckham Based Engagement;

'Joseph and Nsikan from the Trust, Confidence & Engagement team and Peter Broughton-Rates from the Peckham Neighbourhood Ward facilitated a school visit to Peckham Police Station. The visit was in collaboration with Spark! youth charity...Spark! work to support young people and equip the young people with skills and motivation for their career ahead...It was a very positive visit and the visitors thoroughly appreciated the opportunity to ask Joseph, Nsikan, Peter and Superintendent Gabriel Cameron a variety of questions in regards to policing in London...A special mention goes to Peter Broughton-Rates who worked a rest day in order to support with the event, thank you Peter.'
